

The Monterey Institute of International Studies, a graduate school of Middlebury College, has been preparing graduate professionals for global careers in the private, public, nonprofit and educational sectors since 1955. Located in Monterey, California, the Institute offers advanced degrees in international policy studies, translation and interpretation, international environmental policy, language teaching, and international business, as well as a variety of specialized certificates and programs. The Institute, whose approximately 800 students come from more than 60 countries, is also home to the renowned James Martin Center for Nonproliferation Studies. In July 2010, the Monterey Institute became a graduate school of Middlebury College, one of nation's leading liberal arts colleges.

Custom Language Services

Custom Language Services (CLS) at the Monterey Institute of International Studies offers language programs for corporate executives, business consultants, government officials, and private individuals interested in honing their skills in a foreign language. Our one-on-one and small group classes offer instruction in a variety of languages and formats.

In addition, our CLS Hybrid Distance-Learning Program offers an innovative approach to language instruction for busy professionals who want to maintain their language skills while fulfilling their professional responsibilities.

In addition to our executive and hybrid programs, Custom Language Services also offers a range of programs designed especially for diplomats. These English for Diplomats programs provide intensive English language instruction for diplomats at various levels of expertise. Programs incorporate specialized skill-based language instruction integrated with content-based instruction in both one-on-one and group environments. Content courses and workshops that integrate trade and policy studies, economics, negotiation, and conflict resolution are offered as part of a progressive and innovative curriculum. To accommodate the varying schedules, language abilities, and specific learning goals of our students, we offer a range program options.

Satisfied Clients

"Custom Language Services at the Monterey Institute is the best institute that I have attended to study English. I was given my own room and computer. We also made full use of the recording facilities. Beautiful nature and a nice atmosphere encouraged me to study hard."

- Yoichiro Sato, CLS English program, diplomat

"Thanks to the instructors' dedication, each session was very exciting and fruitful. It was also a great opportunity to deepen my knowledge about the current international and U.S. domestic issues."

- Shunsuke Nagano, Ministry of Foreign Affairs-Japan

A tailored curriculum to meet your specific needs and accommodate your personal learning style

A focus on relevant "real-world" tasks and field-specific language

Personalized instruction at a pace and intensity just right for you
